

For Immediate Advisory: July 9, 2010

Contact: David Ladenburg (253) 906-6454

Advisory: David Ladenburg Announces Campaign Kickoff

Ladenburg is running for his third term as Municipal Court Judge in Tacoma and is kicking off his campaign at the Convention Center on July 15th.

Tacoma—David Ladenburg, a former prosecutor for the City of Tacoma, is running for his 3rd term as Tacoma Municipal Court Judge. He will be holding his campaign kickoff at the Tacoma Trade and Convention Center, located at south 15th and Commerce in downtown Tacoma, on July 15th from 5:00pm to 7:00pm. David currently is presiding over the dedicated domestic violence court in Tacoma. “I am proud of my hard work as Prosecutor and as a Judge tackling the most difficult cases in our local court system—domestic violence. I have made a career out of combating domestic violence and I hope to continue my work protecting individuals and families by representing our community as their Judge. I look forward to a hard fought campaign.”

Judge Ladenburg has delivered justice while helping to positively address the needs of those who come before the court. He has worked to establish programs to help people in need of treatment and holds them responsible to deal with issues negatively impacting their lives and our community.

Ladenburg is running opposed and will move directly to the general election.

=30=

David
Ladenburg
TACOMA MUNICIPAL JUDGE Pos. 1

